

NPDES STORM WATER PROGRAM

HOTLINE RESPONSE GUIDELINES

Spills occurring on city streets will eventually reach the ocean if not cleaned up properly and promptly. Even non hazardous materials such as used oil can cause significant pollution. The goal of the City's NPDES Storm Water Program is to reduce pollution as much as possible. This chart summarizes the procedures for responding to citizen or other complaints regarding spilled materials.

